FALL FETE
The Sewing Circle of Our Lady of Mercy will give a fall fete at 1174 East Broadway on Friday, October 14, afternoon and evening, for the benefit of the building fund of the Convent of Mercy. An enjoyable time is promised all who attend. An appetizing spaghetti lunch will be prepared by Mrs. Hasselwander and Mrs. Luvell and served by Mrs. Hauck and Mrs. Glass. The President of the society, Mrs. Carrie Ropke, requests that all members attend the meetings which will be held every Thursday preceding the festival at 1174 East Broadway.

DELEGATION TO DEDICATION.
New Albany Council, K. of C., has selected a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Nabers, Grantz and Weinmann, to organize a delegation from New Albany to attend the dedication of the Father Gihault Home for Boys, an institute of the Indiana Knights of Columbus, near Terre Haute. The dedication will take place October 9. Father Meinrad Ruck, formerly of Georgetown township and at one time an instructor in the New Albany Business College, is one of the instructors in the institution.

ESTATE FOR SCHOOL.
The Christian Brothers Institute of New York has purchased Malvern Hall, the 960 acre estate of the late John U. Brookman at West Park, N. Y., on which it is planned to build a college. The institution, it is stated, will be like a normal school to train young men as teachers.

PORTLAND CLUB SOCIAL.
The ladies of the Portland Democratic Club will entertain with a social next Thursday evening at Nelson's Hall, the proceeds to be used for the Democratic campaign fund in that district. The ladies urge a big attendance.

SACRED HEART RETREAT.
The Rev. Michael O'Brien, C. P., vice rector of Sacred Heart Retreat and pastor of St. Agnes congregation, who has been to North Dakota on work for the monastery, returned to Louisville the first of the week.

SEEK HOLY LIFE.
Andrew Himmelhaber and John Beck, of St. Mary's church, and John Flynn, Thomas McGrath, and Charles Walter, of Holy Trinity church, bright New Albany boys, have gone to St. Meinrad Seminary to study for the priesthood. John McBaron, of Holy Trinity, will leave within the next few weeks to resume his studies at the seminary at Little Rock, Ark.

FORTY HOURS.
At St. Williams' church, Thirteenth and Oak, of which the Rev. Father Timothy is pastor, the forty hours' devotion will open tomorrow morning with high mass and exposition, coming to a solemn close on Tuesday. A number of visiting priests will assist at the services.

DANCE COMMITTEE NAMED.
The dance committee of Trinity Council, Y. M. C. I., for the winter season is made up of Vic Sayer, Ed Sator, William Russell, Chester Vetter, C. E. Glenn, Ray Anker, August Becht, J. J. White, Ben Pike, Elmer Trand, Martin Schoenbacher, John Schneider, Ed Mussler, Al Kaeline, J. S. Dittmeier, P. R. Dittmeier.

HONOR ROBERT BARRY.
Robert T. Barry, former local newspaperman, has been named Vice Chairman of the American Press Council, formed in Washington to advise and assist Government officials in arrangement of publicity facilities at the conference on limitation of armament. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barry, 1408 South Brook street.

TRADES TO BE TAUGHT.
Thirty-one different trades will be taught in the nation-wide chain of Knights of Columbus night schools during the year 1921-22. The schools will reopen generally the first week in October with a fresh enrollment of 100,000 students, according to current estimates, this number not including re-enrollments by last year's students.

STRICKEN BY PARALYSIS.
The Right Rev. Thomas O'Gorman, venerable Catholic Bishop of the Eastern Diocese of South Dakota, on Tuesday suffered a stroke of paralysis and at noon was unconscious. He is seventy-eight years old and for many years has been one of the most prominent churchmen in the Northwest. Bishop O'Gorman was ordained November 5, 1865, and was consecrated as second Bishop of Sioux Falls on April 19, 1896. In his diocese there are about 140 priests and 200 churches.

ELECTED BY KNIGHTS.
The following officers were elected by New Albany Council, Knights of Columbus, at their last meeting: Postmaster John A. Cody, Grand Knight; Arthur Huckleberry, Deputy Grand Knight; Edgar Collins, Chancellor; Arthur Zoeller, Financial Secretary; Edward Grantz, Corresponding Secretary; Joseph Bruns, Treasurer; David Jones Warden; Leon Gohmann, Inside Guard; Benjamin Freeman, Outside Guard; James Q. Nabers and Arthur Gregoire, Trustees. Beginning October 1 the Knights will meet at Holy Trinity Hall.

FORMALLY LAUNCHED.
The Knights of Columbus have formally launched their $1,000,000 American history movement with the offer of $7,500 in cash prizes to contestants in a national history competition, manuscripts for which are now being received. Edward F. McSweeney, Jr., of Boston, is Chairman of the K. of C. American History Commission, and Maurice Francis Egan, former Minister to Denmark; Rear Admiral William S. Benson, Charles S. McCarthy, professor of American history in the Catholic University of America and former professor of history at Pennsylvania University; with George Derry, professor of political economy at Union College, complete the personnel.

CROP PROSPECTS POOR.
Kentucky's crop prospects now indicate that potatoes will be not much over half that of last year. Apples, peaches and pears are reported almost a complete failure. Corn also shows a loss that will be felt. These forecasts are from the United States Bureau and the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

WILL HAVE TALK TIME.
The disarmament conference will be held in the hall of the Americans in the Pan-American building, Washington, D. C. The conference, it is said, will last at least two months.

From 3 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock at night the home will be thrown open to the public for inspection. Sister Mary Aloysius, the new Superior, will welcome the visitors. SAVING SCHOOL ANNALS.
Miss Elizabeth R. Kearney, historian of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, has sent out suggestions for promoting the work of the historical department—the preserving of the annals of the Catholic schools of America. Among the recommendations she suggests, there should be permanent efficient press committees to publish the activities of the schools represented. Governors are asked to appoint historians who will collect these press clippings, programmes, official communications and alumnae literature and forward them to the federation historian, when they will be recorded in the historical department. The International Alumnae Federation will meet in Louisville in October, 1922.
